105.2287_interviewfolder_n.d.

HARRY A. KALB

Driver of milk wagon.

Delivered milk to Hall home during September, 1922. On morning of September 15, 1922, while driving horse into driveway leading to rear of the house on the Redmond Street side he observed the rear door open; remembers the incident because he descended from the wagon to close the door so that he could pass. This is the only time he found the door in that position.

-0-